GDPR and DPOs in Greece

- Hellenic Data Protection Authority was established in 1997 by the Law 2472/1997 implementing Directive 46/1995.
- DPA is part of the EDPB (former Art. 29 WG).
- DPA has a long and extended experience but no significant fines yet. Most usual fines concern marketing activity and political campaigns (unsolicited emails/calls) and surveillance.
- The biggest GDPR fine so far was 180k to PWC for a wrong legal base on processing employees data.
- Around 2000 DPOs registered with the DPA, around 60% internal.

Hellenic Association for Data Protection and Privacy

www.dataprotection.gr

- A non-profit group of privacy professionals with a passion to exchange, analyze, communicate and educate on the ongoing issues of data protection, privacy and security
- Around 70 regular members (professionals), 10 academics and 50 external participants (no voting rights).
- 70% of professionals with legal background and 30% of IT or Risk Management background.
- 1/2 conferences per year – 3/4 conferences support per year.
